1. [REDACTED] Miss Marty Konrad, in the office of Representative William Keating (R., Ohio), called and asked if the Agency would "accept the case" of [REDACTED] [REDACTED] His parents have been pressing Keating to help locate [REDACTED] State and FBI are on the case but have not been successful. I advised Konrad that the Agency has no police powers and turned down her request; however, I told her that we would check our files to be certain we have no pertinent information and would call her back.

5. [REDACTED] In meeting with Gordon Nease, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, he pressed me for the response to the questions he had posed with Jack Maury concerning the Agency involvement in the Ellsberg case. I told Nease that it was in train and that the answers would come up as soon as they were completed.
